Finance and Stewardship

By Scott Corbin

How easy is it to look to the Lord in times of trouble? How quickly do we call on Him when we are at our lowest? If you're like me, the answer to those questions is "very easy" and "very fast." But how often do we stop and truly thank God for all of the wonderful ways He has blessed us? Again, if you're like me, you all too often take a lot of those blessings for granted. Sure we can stop and thank God for seeing us through something big that has been weighing on our hearts, but how often do we stop and thank Him for the shoes that we are wearing, the clothes on our back, or the car we are driving? It's not that we aren't thankful for what we have been given; it's that we don't take the time to acknowledge those gifts and the giver. And without these gifts where would we be?

I know that I am very grateful for the many ways that God has blessed me at SPC and I want to not only acknowledge and praise God for those blessings, but I want to acknowledge the blessings as well. Without those blessings, I would not have been able to make it through these last three years as your Elder of Finance. The blessings I am referring to are, of course, the many wonderful men and women who volunteer their time for the finance ministry.

To our counters and head counters who offer up their time following our Sunday services to count our donations, to our volunteer who retrieves the deposit bag from the bank during the week, to our volunteer treasurer and assistant treasurers who sign checks, to our volunteers who perform our yearly financial audits, to our outstanding financial clerk Donna McCatharn, and to the wonderful men and women who make up the finance committee, I say thank you and thank God for all that you do. You are a blessing to me and to SPC!

Our Finance and Stewardship Committee is also responsible for the annual stewardship program at SPC. Commitment Sunday this year will be November 13. You will be receiving Time & Talent & financial pledge forms in the near future and they can be returned on November 20 or anytime afterwards. Prayerfully consider how God is calling you to express gratitude for His blessings and how you can share those blessings with others through your commitment response.

Denominational Update What Happened to My Church?

By Alan Hager

In light of the action of the church Session to request our Presbytery to begin the dismissal process to potentially release SPC from the Presbyterian Church (USA) denomination, I have heard some comments about the challenge of leaving a church many have been connected to for a long time. I share some of the concerns and sadness of possibly leaving the mainline Presbyterian denomination. But this has caused me to dig a little deeper and reflect on why I feel the way I do.

I was baptized into the Presbyterian Church as an infant, confirmed in it as a youth, attended Presbyterian college and seminary, and was ordained over 20 years ago as a Presbyterian minister. But what is the Presbyterian denomination? Our current denomination, the PCUSA, is obviously a significant expression of Presbyterianism, but it does not hold exclusive title to Presbyterianism today any more than it has in the past.

The PCUSA was formed in 1983, which makes it less than 30 years old. There are much older Presbyterian denominations in America. But many still feel that the PCUSA is the real Presbyterian Church or "my Presbyterian church". That may be because the church where we grew up was part of a denomination that merged into the PCUSA. But if change took place at that time, why can't change take place now? Not only was there a merger to form the PCUSA in 1983, but there was a merger in 1958 to form the denominations that later merged in 1983 as well. If you are over 50 years old, you have likely been a part of three different Presbyterian denominations already. If you were a part of a Presbyterian Church that is over 150 years old, your church may well have been a member of five or more different Presbyterian denominations. More importantly, if the people who were pillars of your Presbyterian Church when you were a child knew what was taking place in the PCUSA today, would they still remain in it and encourage their church to be a part of it?

Denomination Update What Happened to My Church?

For myself, I still want to be Presbyterian. But for me, that is not defined by the changing organizations that are mistakenly referred to as “THE Presbyterian Church” or worse, “THE Church.” Instead, it means being part of the legacy of ministry, doctrinal teaching, and church government that has characterized Presbyterianism throughout history. I want to be part of the Presbyterian Church that has remained true to the teachings of people like John Calvin, John Knox, and the like. I want to be part of the tradition that has carried on the clear witness to Jesus Christ in world missions, and the church denomination that honors and adheres to the Westminster Confession of Faith.

That is the Presbyterian Church in which I grew up and in which I hope to serve as a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ for as long as God gives me breath. It is not the denomination defined by initials or various combinations of the words Presbyterian, America, United, and so on. If you were raised in the mainline Presbyterian Church, I suspect that is the legacy you want to cherish and be faithful to as well. And it is precisely this legacy that our Session is seeking to honor and to build upon as we prepare for potential changes in our current denominational affiliation.

Evangelism/New Member- Ministry—We Can Use You!

By Ginny Clevenger

Have you ever visited a church and wondered what the church community had to offer or wished you knew more about the church? If the answer was yes, then you are not alone. Unless you were one of our charter members, we have all been visitors to Spotsylvania Presbyterian Church. It is so important that everyone reach out to someone they do not know the way others once reached out to you.

Helping make that visit a more welcoming experience is an important function of the Evangelism/New Member committee. Information filled welcome bags are always ready for visitors. The committee members and greeters are there to help answer any questions and become a friendly and familiar face. Follow up calls are made to those who sign the visitor pads. We help coordinate when new member classes are held and we are there to assist in the transition to a church member. Fred Brown is the Deacon on our committee who helps coordinate new families and their deacon.

Praise GOD From WHOM All Blessings Flow

By Cheryl Erndle

Enter HIS gates with thanksgiving and into HIS courts with praise! Give thanks to HIM, bless HIS name. (Psalm 100:4)

Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday. There is nothing better than sharing a meal and fellowship with family and friends. I relish cooking the Thanksgiving meal. The aroma of a turkey baking in the oven mixed with the exotic cinnamon and brown sugar of a pumpkin pie and all the side dishes is a bouquet for the nose. I will also confess I like the football games. It is easy for my gratitude to bubble over on that special Thursday.

For Christians, Thanksgiving is more than just a holiday on the calendar. Throughout the Bible, scripture instructs us to live a life of thanksgiving every day. Give thanks in all circumstances for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

We sometimes confine our thanks to things that are tangible, but what about the gifts GOD has bestowed on us that we cannot see but provide the quality of our daily lives? We can give thanks that we are able to praise the LORD and for the opportunities we have to serve HIM. GOD has given us the privilege of coming into his Presence and we are invited to know HIM. We can thank GOD for his covenants, answered prayers, and fellowship with other Christians. We can rejoice and give thanks for GOD's greatest gift, HIS only begotten SON.

By including our thankfulness in prayer, we experience GOD's goodness in our lives and acknowledge our abundant blessings. Everything we have comes from GOD. How will we use HIS gifts? And now we thank THEE, our GOD, and praise THY glorious name. (1 Chronicles 29:13)

Evangelism/New Member Ministry We Can Use You!

Our outreach does not end with visitors to our church. We support our church members in their efforts to share the gospel of Jesus Christ through their many varied functions. We have been present at the Haiti yard sale, the Easter egg hunt, and the Youth Group's service "Trunk or Treat" and we helped organize the 9/11 service. Look for us at the Advent workshop and the Living Nativity, as well as our Sunday morning services.

We have eight dedicated members on our committee, but really the whole congregation is part of the committee! Every time you welcome a visitor and make them feel a part of our church family, you have become the welcoming hand of SPC. It is through your efforts that visitors feel as if they have found their new church home.

Poinsettias

By Ann Harris

The Sanctuary will be decorated this year with poinsettias on Christmas Eve. You are invited to purchase a poinsettia and extend a note in the Worship bulletins in memory or in honor of God, family members, friends, or life events for services. The plants will be in 6" pots. The price is $8.50 per plant. You may pick up your poinsettia after the 10 p.m. Christmas Eve service. Purchase poinsettias by placing a check payable to SPC, with annotation on the note line of your check "Poinsettia".

Beginning November 27, there will be a green folder in the Narthex outside of the Sanctuary and the entrance to the Fellowship Hall for you to designate your memorial or honorarium. Please write legibly when designating your memorial or honorarium.

Place your check in the envelope provided at the front of the folder. The Worship Committee thanks you in advance for your support this holiday season.

Wednesday Night Program at SPC

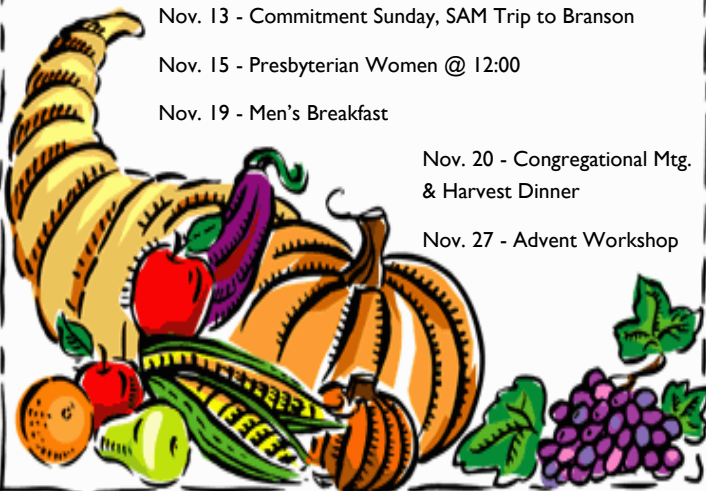

On November 2, we will begin a new phase of our Wednesday night church program. Children will begin to prepare for the Christmas pageant, youth will continue their studies, and there will be some new options for adult classes. If you have not been able to participate in the Wednesday night program this fall, this is an excellent opportunity for you. The women's class will continue with their study that started earlier in the fall as will the class, The Case for Traditional Marriage. The men's class will begin a new study, and a new class will be offered for those who want to start fresh with a new study.

Dinner will continue to be offered at 5:30pm, but we will provide a simpler menu plan for this special phase of the Wednesday night program. Classes for all ages will begin at 6:30pm and choir will continue to meet at 7:30pm. For more information, please contact any of the church staff.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

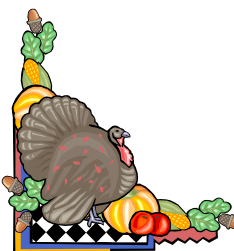

Bring Christmas joy to a child and the good news of Jesus by participating in Operation Christmas Child. The idea is simple. Take an ordinary shoebox, fill it with age appropriate items, attach a special label, include $7 for processing and shipping, and drop it by the church by Sunday, November 13! You can do this with your children or grandchildren, youth can collect items and fill shoeboxes, EVERY-ONE can participate!

IMPORTANT: Each box MUST have a label provided by OCC. Labels are available on the OCC website www.samaritanspurse.org.

Questions? Please contact Jan Saylor at the church, 540-898-4673. Like to help? Talk to Jan about lending a hand with SPC's shoebox collection.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

YOUTH MINISTRY

GET YOUR RAKE ON.

SPC's Inaugural

Leaf Raking Blitz

Saturday, November 19, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

This youth ministry project requires the help of the entire village! Here's how...

1. Do you know of someone in our congregation or in your neighborhood who is physically unable to do their own fall leaf clean up? Give your nominations to Tim Habecker ASAP. Please note: This is NOT A FUNDRAISER! We are looking for people who simply need the help...not people who are too busy, too lazy, willing to pay, etc.
2. Can you help as a "project manager" on the 19th? We will gather at the church by 9 a.m. then fan out across the area. Obviously we'll need at least 1 adult (preferably 2) to transport teenagers, supervise, and help at each yard.
3. Equipment! Can we borrow you and your pickup or trailer to haul equipment and leaves? Do you have a gas blower we could use? Everyone should bring his/her own rake.

We hope to be able to do as many yards as possible between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Obviously the more people and equipment involved, the more people we will be able to bless!

HIGH SCHOOL FALL RETREAT

December 2-4

Concord Retreat
Yellow Spring, WV

Early bird registration on/before Nov. 21 is $75.
After Nov. 21 $90.

Add $20 if you'd like to play paintball!

Senior Adult Ministry (SAM)

By Bill Mickelson

We have a lot of exciting events planned for SAM. Come join us for the fun and fellowship of being a senior.

Thursday Every Week - Small Group Discussions / Bible Study
Sponsored by SAM In the Calvin

Room: This study has been discontinued until further notice.

Sunday, November 13, 12:30 pm - Sunday Lunch with Friends: Join fellow members and friends at the Golden Corral Buffet and Grill, 10320 Spotsylvania Avenue near Route 1 and Mine Road for our monthly gathering. This luncheon is the second Sunday of each month (unless otherwise noted) and provides great fellowship and food. No reservations needed – just pay at the door and look for us in the dining room. Tables will be held until 12:45 pm, so please arrive early. Any questions or lunch location suggestions, please call Martie Levere at (540) 220-4847 and remember we welcome new friends, so please come join us!!

Sunday, December 11, 12:30 pm - “White Christmas” Riverside Dinner Theater: Our 104 reserved seats are sold out. I will be starting a waiting list and can add your name to it. This event will be our annual SAM Christmas luncheon.

Tuesday, February 7-17, 2012 - Panama Canal Cruise: We are embarking on an 11 day cruise through the Panama Canal (Tues – Fri) February 7-17, 2012, leaving and returning from Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. If interested, call Nancy and pick up a flyer with the details.

Special Spring Event 2012 Trip to Lancaster, PA
We will be making an overnight trip to Lancaster, PA, to see the new production of “Jonah” at the Millennium Theater. We will schedule this in early May 2012. Watch the newsletter & bulletins for more details.

Cogitating on the Confessions

By Session

Want something to be thankful for? Consider the work of Jesus Christ on your behalf. The Westminster Confession of Faith, written in 1646, is designed to help us better understand our God and our faith. While not the infallible, it seeks to summarize the key themes of the Bible, the complete and inerrant word of our Lord. We invite you to read and study this month's excerpt from the confession, review its associated scripture, and mediate with thanksgiving on God's completed covenant with us through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Westminster Confession

Chapter 8.5 - 8: Of Christ The Mediator

V. The Lord Jesus, by His perfect obedience, and sacrifice of Himself, which He through the eternal Spirit, once offered up unto God, has fully satisfied the justice of His Father;^[34] and purchased, not only reconciliation, but an everlasting inheritance in the kingdom of heaven, for those whom the Father has given unto Him.^[35]

VI. Although the work of redemption was not actually wrought by Christ till after His incarnation, yet the virtue, efficacy, and benefits thereof were communicated unto the elect, in all ages successively from the beginning of the world, in and by those promises, types, and sacrifices, wherein He was revealed, and signified to be the seed of the woman which should bruise the serpent's head; and the Lamb slain from the beginning of the world; being yesterday and today the same, and forever.^[36]

[34] Rom 5:19; Heb 9:14 – 16, 10: 14; Eph 5:2; Rom 3:25 - 26

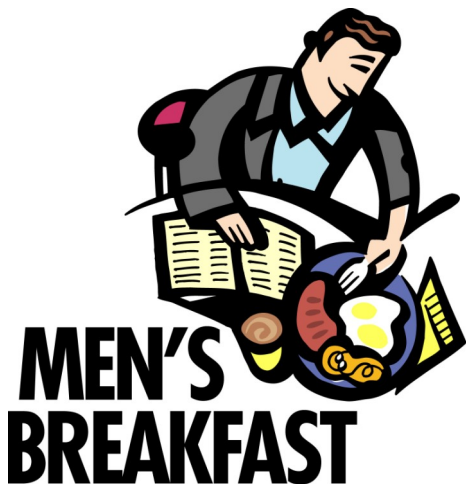

[35] Dan 9:24 - 26; Col 1:19 – 20; Eph 1: 11, 14; John 17:2; Heb 9: 12, 15

[36] Gal 4:4; Gen 3:15; Rev 13: 8; Heb 13: 8

Dear SPC Friends,

We would like to thank you for the loving care we received during Cheryl's recuperation from surgery. The outpouring of food, cards, phone calls, and visits were a testimonial to your devotion as God's faithful servants. When you call on God, He sends angels!

Blessings,

The Erndle Family

We are sad to report that Eddie Carlmark passed away on October 3, 2011. Eddie and his wife, Marge, attended SPC for a few years, before Eddie was moved into a nursing home. Please keep his family in your prayers.

SPC Presbyterian Women

Please join us on November 15, 2011. We meet at 12:00pm in the Edinburgh room.

Our Bible study will begin at 12:30pm. Bring a sandwich — dessert and beverages will be provided. We will be collecting goodies and packing and mailing the “college goodie boxes” to our students in November. Remember to turn in your student's name and address to the office.

Call Carolyn Miller, 548-2746 or Shirley Bazey, 854-5286 if you need a ride.

Men's Ministry Tailgate Party at SPC

Men, come join us on Thursday night, November 17, to see the Virginia Tech Hokies battle the North Carolina Tar Heels! We'll get together in the SPC parking lot for a tailgate prior to the game. The game is televised by ESPN and will be projected big screen style in the Fellowship Hall.

The tailgate starts at 7 p.m. and the kickoff is at 8 p.m. This is a grill-your-own event, but there is always plenty to share. You can bring a grill, but there are always extras of those to share also. If you don't have the time to grill or it just isn't your thing, you can also choose to bring something such as a side dish, soft drinks, chips, or dessert. The important thing is to attend!

Bring a friend from the church or the community. Contacts are Jim McCown and Russ Batchelor. Virginia Tech vs. North Carolina, Thursday November 17th at 7 p.m. See you there!

Micah Ministries Donations

Hannah Jordan (Girl Scout Troop 493) is working on her “Silver Award” project for Scouts and she has chosen to help collect toiletries and first aid items to benefit Micah Ministries. If you wish to help, Hannah has placed a box in the area outside the Fellowship Hall where you can place your donations. The following items are needed:

- ♥ Band-aids & rolls of self-adhesive bandages
- ♥ Gauze pads 2x2 and 4x4
- ♥ Triangular bandages
- ♥ Neosporin
- ♥ Insect bite cream & Hydrocortisone cream
- ♥ Medical tape
- ♥ Hand Sanitizer
- ♥ Shampoo & conditioner
- ♥ Deodorant
- ♥ Unscented lotion
- ♥ Toothbrushes
- ♥ Razors
- ♥ Bug Spray
- ♥ Sunscreen
- ♥ Chapstick

Thank you so much for your help in supporting the homeless in our area!

*“He has shown you, O mortal, what is good.
And what does the LORD require of you?
To act justly and to love mercy
and to walk humbly^[a] with your God.”*
